Resolutions naming a Redwood City Disaster Council and providing a means of registering volunteers for disaster work were passed last night by the city council.

The registration is necessary if volunteers are to be protected by a state mutual aid insurance plan.

COURT ROUNDUP: 6-Month Sentence In Redwood City Dope Hearing Conviction

A Redwood City man who was arrested six weeks ago for selling marijuana, late Monday was sentenced to six months in the county jail.

Superior Judge Edmund Scott meted out the sentence to James Cook, 29, of 1327 Hancock St. The case of another Negro, Willie Johnson, 50, of 10 Linden St., was continued a week.

Both pleaded guilty to the dope charges a week ago.

At the time of the arrest, officers announced a crackdown on a "chickenfeed dope ring" which has been responsible for various disturbances in Redwood City's Five Points area.

The arrests were made by Sgt. Sylvester Douglass, Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore, Dep. Sheriff Paul Jensen and L. T. Noel, state narcotics agent.

To get the evidence on the pair, Noel purchased dope from the two men. From Cook Noel obtained a "teel," or tobacco can full of marijuana. Johnson allegedly sold Noel 17 cigarettes containing the drug. The purchases were made a few days before the pair was nabbed on Nov. 30.

Other cases before Judge Scott yesterday: Bernadene Sterios, a China Lake waitress who formerly lived in Redwood City, was placed on three years' probation on condition she serve three months in the county jail. Mrs. Sterios had pleaded guilty to giving her landlord a bad check. She was ordered to repay a total of $295. S. N. Wadsworth, 40-year-old Jenner lumberman, pleaded not guilty to two counts of bad checks and his trial was set for Feb. 15. Wadsworth is accused of passing two checks, totaling $1256, to Roy L. Summers of Manchester in San Carlos on Oct. 18.

G. D. Webster, an electrician who posed as an airlines pilot, changed his plea to guilty to passing bad checks. He asked for probation and is to be sentenced on Jan. 31. Webster admitted writing four rubber checks totaling $139.50 to the Casa Mateo Inn, the Palace Grocery and to the Skyway Cafe in October.

RC Woman, 4 Others Injured in Accidents

A Redwood City woman was seriously injured early Monday when a car driven by her husband overturned on Bayshore Hwy. at the Holly Rd. intersection east of San Carlos.

Mrs. Vera Jorth, 45, of 947 Haven Ave., was in Community Hospital Monday with possible fractures of both lower legs and shock. Her condition was listed as fair.

Mrs. Jorth was one of five persons injured during the weekend in automobile accidents in the unincorporated parts of San Mateo County. Her husband, Arthur S. Jorth, 45, a plasterer, suffered cuts on his chin and knees. He was treated at Community Hospital and dismissed.

The accident occurred at 2:15 a.m. Jorth was driving south on Bayshore Hwy., and his coupe ran off the west edge of the highway onto the raised traffic island. It struck a steel guard post and nosed over onto its back.

The other three injured were hurt in a rear-end collision involving two cars at 6:15 p.m. Sunday on El Camino Real at Santa Maria Ave., Lomita Park. All were treated at South San Francisco Hospital for minor injuries and released.

The accident occurred when a sedan driven by Hilliard J. Moore, 46, of San Francisco, ran into a convertible coupe operated by Henry C. Kimmel, 30, of Lomita Park. The two drivers, and Moore's wife, Anna, 46, were injured.

Three motorists were arrested during the weekend by the California Highway Patrol on charges of drunken driving, two of them after automobile accidents.

Jack Remmers, 52, a Burlingame salesman, was cited after his car crashed into a sedan operated by Charles C. Putman, 38, of Richmond, a University of California student.

At the time of the accident, at 8 p.m. Sunday, according to the CHP, Remmers was driving south at about 50 miles an hour in a northbound lane of divided Bayshore Freeway, about a mile south of the San Bruno overpass. Neither driver was hurt.

Ben C. Ballard Jr., 40, a San Francisco distillery firm clerk, was arrested after his car was involved in a collision with a sedan driven by Frank L. Christiansen, 38, of San Francisco. The accident occurred at 2:25 p.m. Sunday on El Camino Real near Santa Maria Ave., Lomita Park.

Ballard, the CHP stated, had been driving north, and stopped at the side of the road. He backed his car into Christiansen's northbound vehicle, according to officers.

Frank A. Conti, 28, a welder, of San Francisco, was arrested Saturday evening on charges of drunken driving, reckless driving, passing on the shoulder and following too closely. The officers stated that Conti's car was traveling at 70 miles an hour north from Brisbane to Geneva Ave. near the San Francisco County line.

Robins Pay Early Visit
To Redwood City
Mrs. Richard Collett, 140 Iris St., reported here that about 200 robins were bathing in the fish pond at the rear of her home. She said the birds had arrived early this morning and were still there this afternoon. She said that each year at about this time a large flock of robins drop in to her back yard to use her fish pond as a bathtub.

72 Members Attend Dinner Given by St. Anthony's Club

Seventy-two members and friends of St. Anthony's Club of St. Anthony's Church in North Fair Oaks gathered for dinner at the Oakwood Inn recently to welcome new officers. Mrs. I. L. Ellenberger was in charge of the affair.

Following the dinner E. T. Terry, master of ceremonies, introduced the Rev. Father T. J. McKeon, pastor of the Church of the Nativity, of which St. Anthony's is a mission. The Rev. Father McKeon gave a report on the progress being made towards the building of a new church.

Mrs. E. B. Thiele, past president, gave a report on last year's activities and was followed by Mrs. Albert Thompson, acting president, who spoke on her hopes of the future for the club.

Mrs. C. H. Beckwith closed the evening with a dramatic reading. St. Anthony's Club has set Feb. 25 as the date for its annual pre-

Menlo Players Guild Tackles Problem of Sets, Props for Coming Production 'Kind Lady'

A general meeting between early El Greco, a Ming horse, a Georgian mantel for the fireplace," Mr. Shrader said. "I had considered following the Adam period of architecture," he continued, "but decided against it since our facilities are still inadequate for so intricate a piece of work."
Also on hand was the guild's newly appointed head property man, John Lomax. Mr. Lomax was recently chosen to fill the place of Leonard Sundquist.
Crew work will begin next Saturday from 10 a.m. on and will continue on weekends throughout the next five weeks.

The Robert E. Burns Fete 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Burns had a date for dinner, but Alice Mae, their daughter, called them home because their children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dyke and baby, had arrived from Everett, Wash. They returned to their home at 2211 Euclid Ave. to be greeted by cries of "surprise."

This Jan. 16, 1949, marked the 25th wedding anniversary of the couple, who met at a box social at Rosehill School in Dixon, Neb., 26 years ago. Mrs. Frank Joslin, who brought them together, now lives in San Francisco. She was one of those who attended their silver anniversary party.

The Burns were married in Sioux City, Ia., and moved to East Palo Alto about nine years ago. Besides their young daughter, Alice Mae, their son-in-law and daughter and first grandchild, the Harold Dykes, they have a son, Dick Burns and his recent bride.

With their dining room decorated with streamers, silver, bells and the table fixed with white candles, ferns, white carnations and snapdragons, the couple cut the wedding cakes prepared by Mrs. Claude Hutcheson and Mrs. Mike McNemany.

Among the guests were Mrs. Roy Burn of Walnut Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hutcheson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford La-

CALIFORNIA BRIEFS: Cold Weather Forecast in Area

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Clear and cold was the forecast for most of Northern California today.

Temperatures will be lower than the past few days, the weather bureau said, but not as low as during last week's cold spell.

Lake and Mendocino Counties received for a heavy snowfall and snow was also falling over the Sierra, some districts reporting blizzards.

Yesterday's snowfall measured up to a foot in some sections of Lake County. Other depths reported included Woodland 4 inches, Colusa 6, Williams 3, Auburn 5 and Ukiah 2.

BERKELEY (AP)—Wellington T. Switzer, 52, Pacific Coast retail manager for Montgomery Ward & Co., died yesterday after a heart attack.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The City Civil Service Commission yesterday reversed itself and voted to accept a superior court judgment upholding a wage increase for municipal carmen and bus drivers. The increase means more than $350,000 in retroactive wages for 2800 employees. The difference between the disputed rate of $1.484 an hour and the present $1.368 had been impounded since July 1.

SANTA CRUZ (AP)—William Cornelius Coleman, 63, former publisher and editor of the Amador Ledger at Jackson, died yesterday. He came here from Jackson in 1935. He had been editor there from 1919 to 1931.

OAKLAND (AP)—Several thousand homes were blacked out for more than seven hours last night when a tree fell across a power line in East Oakland. Current was cut off in the Diamond, Fruitvale, Oakmore and Forest Hill areas.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An ocean going tug starts an 800-mile coastwise towing job today, taking three converted army surplus LETS from Sausalito to Santos in Brazil.

The tug and LETS were purchased for use as auto ferries between Santos and Guarujá, a resort island several miles offshore.

Oswaldo S. Gabbi, secretary to the governor of the State of Adhemar Barros, who made arrangements for the two, will be aboard the tug for the voyage.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Credit regulation was applied to automobile purchases may get an airing here next week at the National Automobile Dealers Assn. convention. The four-day meeting opens Monday.

Clinics or roundtable discussions will be held on used cars, taxes, retail sales management, employer-employee relations, highway safety and truck sales. One of the opening day speakers is Henry J. Kaiser, chairman of Kaiser-Frazer Automobile Corp. He charged recently that regulation was curtailing automobile sales and blamed it for cutting back production at the K-F plant.

Regulation requires a buyer of a car to pay one-third down and any balance in 15 to 18 months.

County Clerk Shows Work Gain

County Clerk William H. Augustus reported today that business, so far as his office was concerned, was better in 1948 than in 1947.

The clerk's office collected a total of $28,905.45 in fees last year, compared to $26,784.87 in 1947. Much of the increase was due to a rise in the number of court cases. Probate proceedings totaling 962 were filed last year, compared to 883 the year before, while civil cases numbered 2662, compared to 2498. Juvenile cases, however, dropped slightly, from 297 to 270.

Among miscellaneous matters, Augustus reported that about the same number of people were getting married. Marriage licenses totaling 1520 were issued last year, compared to 1535 the year before. There were 229 articles of incorporation filed, and 325 papers announcing the operation of firms under fictitious names. It took 332 pages to report meetings of the board of supervisors, compared to 630 in 1947. The board itself met 77 times, 14 more than the previous year.

L. A. Pyramid $100,000 Payoff Probed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Authorities, convinced the pyramid friendship club had been plying out in the lower payoff brackets, today checked rumors of groups shelling out for king-sized takes. A report that Hollywood had gone in for $50-a-head pyramids with a $100,000 payoff mushroomed into a rumor that in the Spring St. financial district somebody had started a $100 scheme with an even more astronomical "take." Police said they hadn't been able to run down these reports.

The craze began a few weeks ago with a modest 50 cents or $1 entry fee. Names were arranged in pyramid form, new joiners got others in, names moved up as the clubs met weekly until the top man was paid, supposedly about $2000. Law enforcement officers unanimously declared the scheme illegal. Twenty-one arrests and repeated warning that there would be more apparently cooled off the wildfire.

Atty. Theodor I. Kowan, representing a large group of pyramiders, said he planned to sue for declaratory relief from police.

Hedge hyssop, an herb with a bitter, nauseous taste, once formed the basis for a celebrated gout medicine.

One factor which may have discouraged the craze is newspaper publication of some simple arithmetic. Somebody figured out that it takes 2000 persons paying in their dollars without people.

Kiwanians Hear E. J. Foley Talk

Edward J. Foley of the San Mateo Social Security office spoke at yesterday's meeting of the Redwood City Kiwanis Club on "Old Age and Survivor Insurance." He described the system and how benefits are computed.

He was introduced by Ray Weymouth, program chairman. John Ball was installed by Fred Schmitz as the new president of the club replacing Tom Eaton who resigned as a club member due to his moving to Toronto, Canada.

Visiting Kiwanians were Ira W. Barnett, G. O. Smallcomb and Clare Perry of the Burlingame-San Mateo club, Larry Dowdy of San Carlos and Jack H. Oldenburg of San Lorenzo.

Claim Man Killed Two Brides

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Twice 48-year-old Victoriano Corrales returned to his native Mexico and each time he returned here with a girl after filling her head with tales of luxurious living.

And twice, said sheriff's deputies, he killed, in the same way for the same reason: each girl threatened to leave him for a younger man, so he struck her down with a hammer and an ax, then butchered her body and threw the pieces into a river.

Today a charge of murder in both deaths was on file against the slight, greying day laborer.

In June the torso of Miss Gomez was found in the Sacramento River, minus the head, intact.

There were quarrels. The killings followed. The bodies were dismembered because they were too heavy to carry to the river intact.
